

This is to notify of the designation of two new enforcement parking zones effective November 1, 2017, per Park City Municipal Corporation Code – Title 9.

ZONE H – Employee Homestake Parking Lot located at 1875 Homestake Road will be designated as “Zone H.” Beginning December 15, 2017, Old Town employees will be eligible to park in Zone H, which will offer a free Park-and-Ride service to the Old Town Transit Center.

For information on registering to park in Zone H, please visit our website: parkcity.org/departments/parking.

ZONE L – Library & Mawhinney Parking Lots located at 1255 Park Avenue and adjacent will be designated within the Permit Parking Zone as “Zone L.” These parking lots are designated for library building patrons and City Park goers and will remain free. The establishment of a parking zone will allow enforcement of unauthorized vehicles.

For questions please contact Parking Services at (435) 615-5301.
