Youth Clinic Descriptions

Registration for clinics may be done online or through the front desk.

Red Ball 1 (4-5 years): Red Ball 1 clinics focus on learning the basics. Our goal is to give each child a first experience that will allow them to have fun and develop a love for the game. We spend time developing hand-eye skills, teaching basic groundstrokes and introducing volleying and rallying skills.

Red Ball 2 (6-7 years): Red Ball 2 clinics focus on learning the basics. Our goal is to give each child a first experience that will allow them to have fun and develop a love for the game. We spend time developing hand-eye skills, teaching basic groundstrokes and introducing volleying and rallying skills.

Youth Tennis Camp (8-10 years): Youth tennis camp is available for our Orange/Green ball leveled players. Youth tennis camp runs for three hours a day for a full week session. The players will receive an hour and a half of instruction on groundstrokes, volleys and serve technique and then a full hour of facilitated point play and games. A 30 minute lunch break is included. Please come prepared with a lunch as Youth Tennis Camp will have a break.

Green Ball (11-13 years): Green ball clinics are divided based on ability level. Players will receive group instruction on groundstrokes, volleys and serve techniques as well as games designed to teach the basics of tennis strategy.

Yellow Ball (14- 17 years): Yellow ball clinics are divided based on ability level. Players will receive group instruction on groundstrokes, volleys and serve techniques. Games and point play will also be included to help prepare players for competition on High School tennis teams.

All clinics will be held outdoors except Red Ball 1 and 2. Please come prepared with a water and sunscreen.
