

IT'S GREAT TO SKATE!

The following coaches are independent contractors permitted to teach private lessons at the Park City Ice Arena. Coaches manage their clientele including booking lessons and collecting payment. Coaches should be contacted directly and hired by skaters and their families to teach private lessons. Skaters in a private lessons are responsible for registering and paying for the ice session (Freestyle or Public Skate) through the Park City Ice Arena. All figure skating coaches below are registered USFS and PSA Coaches.

Private lessons may be taught during the following sessions:

Freestyle: Public session for figure skaters practicing a variety of skating skills and disciplines.

- Online registration highly encouraged: Capacity 24 Skaters.
- Private lessons allowed, up to three skaters per lesson.
- Tools such as harnesses and parachutes are permitted.
- Skaters should be familiar with freestyle skating patterns or in a private lesson.
- Personal music is permitted. CDs and Bluetooth compatible devices work well for visitors. Keycards for Rink Music are available through the FSCPC.

Public Skate: A session for the public to ice skate.

- Skaters travel in the same direction around the perimeter of the ice sheet.
- The coned area in the center is for skaters practicing jumps and spins.
- The coned area under the scoreboard is designated for private lessons.
- Training tools are not permitted outside of the designated lesson area.
- No personal music.
