The Mayor and City Council seek one community member to serve on the Park City Public Art Advisory Board (PAAB) to fulfill one vacant term. Those interested in applying must have full-time residency within the limits of Park City. This position is to fill a vacant term ending in June of 2026. Board members serve three-year terms and may serve no more than two consecutive terms. Vacant terms do not count against term limits. The Board meets on the second Monday of every month at 5:00 p.m. at City Hall in the Marsac Executive Conference Room. Board members are not compensated and serve as representatives of the citizens of Park City.

PAAB makes recommendations to the City Council regarding Public Art planning and expenditures and maintains the City's public art inventory. The eight-member board focuses on project identification, requests for proposals, the selection process (including reviewing artists' proposals for each project), and making recommendations to the City Council.
